Mass Vestments

When celebrating Mass, priests and deacons wear special clothes called vestments.

A priest wears a long, white robe that is called an alb.

Over the alb the priest wears a stole.

Over the stole the priest wears a chasuble.

When a deacon is present at Mass, he wears an alb and a stole that stretches from his left shoulder to his right side.

What season of the Church year are you celebrating now? Color the priest's stole and chasuble the color of the season. If it is the Christmas season or Easter season, color the neckline and center of the chasuble gold.

Prayer After Communion

After Holy Communion we offer prayers of thanksgiving and joy.

✝ Prayer After Communion

Jesus, Son of God,
thanks and praise to you.

Jesus, Good Shepherd,
thanks and praise to you.

Jesus, Lamb of God,
thanks and praise to you.

✧ Jesus, Bread of Life and love,
thanks and praise to you.

Jesus, source of strength and joy,
thanks and praise to you.

Thank you, Jesus,
for your life in mine.

Help me live your Good News of love and peace.

Write your own prayer to say after you receive Holy Communion.
Then color the picture of Jesus.

Mass Glass Design

Imagine that you have been asked to design a panel of stained glass to hang in your church. Have the panel illustrate the celebration of Mass and Holy Communion. In the space below draw your scene or design. Use any of the actions or symbols discussed in class, or choose others that you think of. Color your drawing. After you finish, draw a design of black lines over your picture to make it look like a stained-glass window.
